

Please do not allow the CBA to use the telephone system to solicit business. Since the No Call law went into effect the amount of unwanted and needless phone calls has greatly diminished. As a paying customer to use the phone system, I should have the right to control who calls me.